*Two Stage
Tendering*

(2) A procuring entity shall engage in procurement by two-stage tendering:

- (a) where it is not feasible for the procuring entity to formulate detailed specifications for the goods or works or, in the case of services, to identify their characteristics and where it seeks tenders, proposals or offers on various means of meeting its needs in order to obtain the most satisfactory solution to its procurement needs;
- (b) where the character of the goods or works are subject to rapid technological advances, where the procuring entity seeks to enter into a contract for research, experiment, study or development, except where the contract includes the production of goods in sufficient quantities to establish their commercial viability or to recover research and development costs, where the procuring entity applies this Law to procurement concerned with security and determines that the selected method is the most appropriate method of procurement; or

(c) where the tender proceedings have been utilized but were not successful or the tenders were rejected by the procuring entity under an open competitive bid procedure and the procuring entity considers that engaging in new tendering proceedings will not result in a procurement contract.

(3) The provisions of this Law as regards the process for open competitive bidding shall apply to two-stage tendering proceedings except to the extent that those provisions vary from this Section.

- (4) The invitation documents:
- (a) shall call upon suppliers or contractors to submit, in the first stage of two-stage tendering proceedings, initial tenders which contain their proposals without a tender price; and
 - (b) may solicit proposals that relate to technical, quality or other characteristics of the goods, works or services as well as contractual terms and conditions of supply and may stipulate the professional competence and technical qualifications of the suppliers or contractors.
- (5) The procuring entity may, in the first stage, engage in negotiations with any supplier or contractor whose tender has not been rejected under an open competitive bidding procedure with respect to any aspect of its tender.
- (6) In the second stage of the two tender proceedings, the procuring entity:
- (a) shall invite suppliers or contractors whose tenders have not been rejected to submit final tenders with prices on a single set of specifications;
 - (b) may, in formulating the specifications, delete or modify any aspect of the technical or quality characteristics of the goods, works or services to be procured together with any criterion originally set out in these documents, evaluate and compare tenders and ascertain the successful tender;

- (c) may add new characteristics or criteria that conform with this Law;
- (d) shall communicate to suppliers or contractors in the invitation to submit firm tenders, any deletion, modification or addition; and
- (e) may permit a supplier or contractor who does not want to submit a final tender, withdraw from the tendering proceedings.

- (7) The final tenders shall be evaluated and compared in order to ascertain the successful tender as defined in an open competitive bid.

- 43. (1) Subject to the approval by the Bureau, a procuring entity may for reasons of economy and efficiency engage in procurement by means of selective tendering if:

*Selective
Tendering*

- (a) the goods, works or services are available only from a limited number of suppliers or contractors;

- (b) the time and cost required to examine and evaluate a large number of tenders is disproportionate to the value of the goods, works or services to be procured; or
 - (c) the procedure is used as an exception rather than the norm.
- (2) Where a procuring entity engages in selective tendering on the basis that:
- (a) the goods, works and services are available only from a limited number of suppliers or contractors, it shall invite tenders from all suppliers/contractors who can provide the goods, works or services; and
 - (b) the time and cost required to examine and evaluate a large number of tenders is disproportionate to the value of the goods, works or services, it shall select in a non-discriminatory manner, the number of suppliers or contractors to ensure effective competition;
- (3) For the purposes of sub-section (2), of this Section, the procuring entity shall cause a notice of the selected tendering proceedings to be published in the procurement journal.

- (4) The provisions of this Law regarding the open competitive bidding procedure shall apply to the selective tendering proceedings, except to the extent that those provisions are varied by this Section.

44. (1) A procuring entity may carry out procurements by requesting for quotations from suppliers or contractors where the value of the goods or works to be procured does not exceed a sum that shall be set in the procurement regulation.

Request for Quotation

(2) Generally, quotations shall be obtained from at least three (3) unrelated contractors or suppliers.

(3) Each contractor or supplier from whom a quotation is requested shall:

- (a) be informed whether any factors other than the charges for the goods, works or services themselves, such as any applicable transportation and insurance charges, customs duties and taxes are to be included in the price; and
- (b) give only one quotation and shall not be allowed to change or vary the quotation.

- (4) No negotiation shall take place between a procuring entity and a contractor or supplier with respect to a quotation.
- (5) The procurement shall be awarded to the qualified contractor or supplier that gives the lowest priced responsive quotation.
- (6) Where the total value of the procurement is not more than a sum that shall be set in the regulation, the procurement entity may not obtain the Bureau's approval.

45. (1) A procuring entity may carry out any emergency procurement where:
